Did You Know?

Over 25% of LexisNexis employees are, or have been, involved in a LexisNexis International Seed Fund project over the past three years. The fund has awarded $2.7 million to 75 projects, an average of $35,000 per project. Some of the innovations supported by the Seed Fund are:

- GPS navigation tool for legal content by jurisdiction
- Multimedia studio to shoot webinars and internal communications
- Media-analysis solution for businesses
- Self-serve portal for sole practitioners and barristers

Many projects have succeeded and many projects have not. But, what we learn from our "failures" is just as important to celebrate as our successes. The ideas that don't work out are also seeds of innovation. As Thomas Edison said, "I have not failed. I've just found 10,000 ways that won't work."

I⁴ Identify x Insight x Ideas x Impact = Innovation

The level of employee participation and involvement exceeds every expectation of the LNI Seed Fund committee when this initiative began. The benefits, both financial and in employee satisfaction, are becoming more and more evident.

If you'd like to submit your idea to the LexisNexis International Seed Fund, the deadline is February 25. Find out more about the Seed Fund, meet its innovators and read about their projects.
